The Rich Summery Things and the Late Spring Wearables at Wanamaker's

Almost Every Person Has Something to Do Which He Neglects

To break one's self of that habit, simple and small as it may be, might be the turning point

The old adage comes in here that Franklin often spoke of—the lacking nail caused the loss of the horseshoe, which left the horse lame and prevented the rider from reaching safety, causing him to be overtaken and slain by an enemy. So also did Franklin say that carelessness caused more harm than want of knowledge.

Rise up, brother neglector, and let us strike against our common foe.

The Loveliest Summer Fur Is Fox

Fascinating New Hats Have Just Arrived

Quite easy to see that they are intended to go with the prettiest afternoon frocks in one's wardrobe, for they are mostly large picture hats or those of mod erate size, and in the loveliest pastel colors.

For trimming, there are wreaths of flowers, bands of gaily colored coque feathers or ostrich feathers. They are mostly fancy straws, many of them of the rough variety.

You might very easily suspect that the prices were much more than they are, $12 to $20.

It's a Straight Out Fact That a Man Can't Save

By Buying Cheapness Cheapness in anything is mighty costly in the long run.

But the most costly of all cheapness is cheap clothes.

A suit that is bought for a bargain is not a suit at all. It looks its price at the start and grows more expensive with each day's wear. It stands to reason that -it can't be cheapened or the goodness in any suit is not limpid cloth and startling pattern. It is that unseen quality of tailoring that is put in by a master craftsman. And master workmanship costs money hurried just to cause a bargain flurry. But once it is in a suit, it is there to stay as long as the cloth holds together. When a man can buy a suit of that caliber for
